Kevin Walker Named Chief Financial Officer of Fireman's Fund Insurance Company

NOVATO, Calif. (Sept. 14, 2011) – Kevin Walker has been named the new chief financial officer and member of the board of directors of Fireman's Fund Insurance Company. He will assume this role on Sept. 19.

In his day to day responsibilities, Walker will oversee the full scope of financial functions at Fireman's Fund.

Most recently, Walker was chief financial officer for Genworth Financial's Retirement and Protection Division. Before Genworth, he spent 15 years within the Allianz Group. He held several positions over a 10 year period at Allianz Life, including treasurer, senior investment officer, and senior financial officer for product lines. He then worked for five years as a senior vice president in Group Planning and Controlling at Allianz SE in Munich, with responsibility for several regions, including the U.S.

"Kevin brings more than 25 years of broad insurance and financial services experience to Fireman's Fund," said President and CEO Lori Fouché. "Having worked within the Allianz Group, Kevin understands our core business and brings great depth of knowledge to this key leadership role in our organization."
