JEFF HAGER JOINS FIREMAN'S FUND INSURANCE COMPANY AS NATIONAL SALES LEADER

NOVATO, Calif. (Sept. 1, 2009) – Jeff Hager has joined Fireman's Fund Insurance Company as vice president, national sales leader, announced Eleanor Barnard, chief sales, distribution and marketing officer for Fireman's Fund.

In this newly created position, Hager will lead a team of sales professionals responsible for developing the strategy that will accelerate the company's profitable growth with large brokers across the country. He will be based in Dallas.

"Jeff is a great addition to our team, bringing extensive leadership, sales and distribution experience that will help us grow moving forward," said Barnard.

Most recently, Hager served as executive vice president for AIG's Japan Property & Casualty Company in Tokyo, where he was responsible for all product lines, sales and distribution, marketing, and corporate strategy. Prior to his four years with AIG, Jeff was responsible for the distribution and sales strategy in nine states for SAFECO.

Hager has 18 years of experience in the property / casualty insurance industry. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration and marketing from Kansas State University.
