Fireman's Fund Insurance Company Reaches Out to Hurricane Irene Victims

NOVATO, Calif. (August 28, 2011) – Fireman's Fund Insurance Company is responding to the victims of Hurricane Irene by deploying its mobile workforce of experienced catastrophe experts to assist policyholders and conduct inspections of damaged homes, businesses and other property.

Fireman's Fund adjusters were on the ground as Hurricane Irene hit, with the majority of damage along the east coast of the United States. In addition, the company's Catastrophe Claims Center based near St. Louis is taking claim reports and working with the catastrophe team to provide assistance for those needing temporary housing, etc.

Fireman's Fund agents and policyholders who need assistance should call:

(888) FIREHAT or (888) 347-3428

"Our first priority is the well-being of our customers," said Paul Stachura, chief claims officer. "Our team of claims professionals is working around the clock to help them restore their lives and businesses to normal as quickly as possible."
