Bill Kenny Named Vice President of Tax at Fireman's Fund Insurance Company

NOVATO, Calif., (May 20, 2011) – Fireman's Fund Insurance Company announces that Bill Kenny has joined the company as vice president of tax.

In this role, Bill will also lead the tax function for Allianz of America in the U.S. He will lead the teams responsible for tax accounting, tax planning, tax analysis, and reporting for Allianz Group companies throughout the U.S.

"We are very excited to welcome Bill as he brings extensive tax leadership experience to Fireman's Fund," said Jill Paterson, executive vice president and CFO at Fireman's Fund.

Most recently, Bill served as a senior vice president and tax counsel at Aviva USA, managing the tax function for the world's sixth largest insurance group. A licensed tax attorney and CPA, Bill also has held tax leadership positions at ABN AMRO North America and KPMG.

Bill holds a masters of laws in taxation degree from New York University, a juris doctor degree from Loyola University and a bachelor's degree in business administration in accounting from the University of Notre Dame.
